Community Notification Sign-Up

The Division of Youth Rehabilitative Services is pleased to be able to provide a community notification system for our surrounding neighborhoods and community.

By completion of this form, you consent to your information to be added to a communication software that will allow the Division of Youth Rehabilitative Services to communicate with you in the event of a youth walk off, youth escape, or any other emergency occurring on the Ferris School campus. The software is a proven communication solution that enables the division to reach any audience, on any device, in any location for critical event management.

If at any time you move out of the community or choose to no longer receive notification, please contact the Division by following the opt out instructions at the bottom right of this page.
